Preface

This is a sample textbook for ANTH&100–Survey of Anthropology at Lower Columbia College.

What? I can embed a video?

TLDR: What’s under the hood?

This book uses files written in either in Markdown or R Markdown. You can use anything that Pandoc’s Markdown supports, e.g., a math equation  $a^2 + b^2 = c^2$ .

For now, you have to install the development versions of bookdown from Github:

```
devtools::install_github("rstudio/bookdown")
```

Remember each Rmd file contains one and only one chapter, and a chapter is defined by the first-level heading #.

To compile this example to PDF, you need to install XeLaTeX.

Chapter 1

Introduction

1.1 What is anthropology?

1.2 Chapter/section labeling

You can label chapter and section titles using `{#label}` after them, e.g., we can reference Chapter 1. If you do not manually label them, there will be automatic labels anyway, e.g., Chapter 4.

1.3 Figures and tables

Figures and tables with captions will be placed in `figure` and `table` environments, respectively.

```
p <- ggplot(dnica, aes(x = age, fill = sex)) + geom_histogram(position = "dodge", alpha = 0.6) + ggtitle("p")
```

par(mar = c(4, 4, .1, .1))
plot(pressure, type = 'b', pch = 3)
```

Reference a figure by its code chunk label with the `fig:` prefix, e.g., see Figure 1.1. Similarly, you can reference tables generated from `knitr::kable()`, e.g., see Table 1.1.

knitr::kable(
  head(iris, 20), caption = 'Here is a nice table!', booktabs = TRUE
)

1.4 Citations with bookdown

You can write citations, too. For example, we are using the bookdown package (Xie, 2017) in this sample book, which was built on top of R Markdown and knitr (Xie, 2015).
